A is for Aborigines, here long before.
They respect Mother Nature, and her laws adore.

B is for Boomerang, sailing through the blue,
A part of Aussie culture, that brings back fun to you.

C is for Cricket, a sport we adore,
When the ball flies, it's an Aussie score.

D is for Dingo, a dog that's wild,
In Australia's outback, it roams for miles.

E is for Emu, running fast and free,
In the heart of Australia, as happy as can be.

F is for Fairy Bread, a party treat so fine,
With sprinkles on top, when it's eating time.

G is for Great Barrier Reef, a colourful sea land,
A beautiful part of Australia, simply grand.

H is for Harbour, bright and wide,
where the Sydney boats all reside.

I is for Irwin, a famous name indeed,
Steve's love for wild creatures is an Aussie's creed.

J is for Joey, jumping so high.
In Australia, baby kangaroos reach for the sky.

K is for Koala, who sleeps in the tree,
Cuddly and grey, as cute as can be.

L is for Lamington, a treat fluffy and light,
Covered in chocolate and coconut white.

M is for Melbourne, a city full of cheer,
Where bikes and trams are ways to steer.

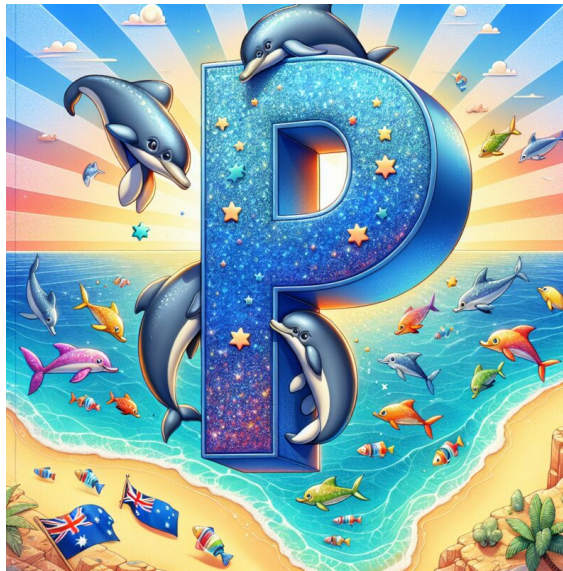

N is for No Worries, it's what Aussies say,
To reassure you that all is okay.
